About Me

Hello, I'm Manjil Maharjan, a recent graduate from Softwarica College of IT and E-commerce with a passion for Web Development. I am a React.js developer with experience in building responsive web applications and am currently on a learning curve to master the MERN stack. Additionally, my background as a Social Media Manager at Digipline has deepened my understanding of user behavior and digital strategies..

Experience

Digipline Digital Agency
Sydney - Australia

2022 - 2023

Responsible for overseeing end-to-end social media operations for Digipline, a leading digital marketing agency in Australia. Key responsibilities included managing and curating engaging content, executing social media campaigns, and compiling comprehensive reports for client performance analysis. Successfully enhanced brand visibility and client satisfaction through strategic social media initiatives.
